

WOMEN CONNECT

A PSYCHOTHERAPY GROUP for women dealing with traumatic life events, personal/relationship difficulties, and/or grief & loss.

- Do you need support? Relationship change? To nurture yourself?
- Do you want to better understand yourself, your needs and better manage emotional and relationship stress?

Group therapy is an effective, and sometimes preferred, treatment option for many emotional challenges. Join group to gain support, sense of hope, and emotional growth/healing. Group members develop personal/relationship insights by connecting with others and sharing personal emotional experiences. This virtual psychotherapy group is led by an experienced, certified group psychotherapist.
